NASSAU COUNTY DEPARTMENT of PARKS, RECREATION & MUSEUMS

Edward P. Mangano, County Executive — Carnell T. Foskey, Commissioner

GARVIES POINT MUSEUM

www.garviespointmuseum.com

50 Barry Drive, Glen Cove, NY 11542 (516) 571-8010

JEWELRY WORKSHOP

Kathleen DiResta, Instructor

NEW COURSE begins January 4th, 2012

Wednesdays, 9:30- 12:30 PM & 1-4 PM

8 WEEKS $200.00

small class size - individualized attention

Fully equipped professional studio complete hands-on course

pre-payment & pre-registration required

Learn both basic and advanced jewelry making techniques. Basic skills include sawing, soldering, forming and texturing. Through weekly demonstrations students complete projects of their own design. Advanced techniques include stone setting, stringing, wax carving and working in gold.

Directions: From the LIE or Northern State Pkwy, exit to Glen Cove Road, north. Proceed north on Glen Cove Road. When road becomes Glen Cove Bypass, bear left at fork and continue to last traffic light at end of road, facing Glen Cove Firehouse. Turn right, then turn left at the third traffic light and follow remainder of directional signs.

****

JEWELRY WORKSHOP — REGISTRATION/APPLICATION

Garvies Point Museum and Preserve — Winter 2012

50 Barry Drive, Glen Cove, New York 11542

Name: _____ Telephone: _____

Address:_____

Town: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

checks payable: FRIENDS OF GARVIES POINT MUSEUM AND PRESERVE

9:30am-12:30 PM_____ 1-4 PM_____

Office Use Only

Receipt # _____

cash check charge